Digital System Design Laboratory

This Laboratory is furnished for 20 seater occupancy. This laboratory has high quality 20 Digital IC Trainer kits and Integrated Circuit chips to train the students in designing and developing digital electronic circuits. It serves as a building block in many disciplines that utilize data of digital nature like digital control, data communication, digital computers etc.