Telephone and Video conferencing has become an essential component of the modern business world and helps improve the connectedness of remote team members.

In fact, 80% of executives say video conferencing is taking over audio conferencing as the go-to form of internal team communication, and 84% think it is outpacing audio conferencing in communicating with external stakeholders. That, combined with the fact that some analysts predict 50% of the workforce will work remotely by

Webinar: Social Media Etiquette on 1st July 2021

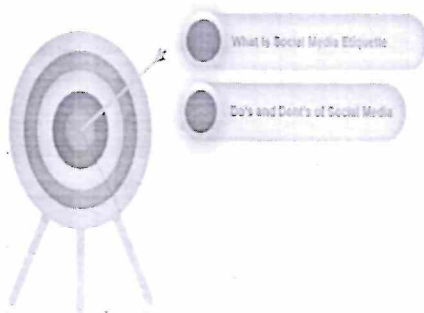

The Department of Computer Science and Engineering, KSSEM has conducted Webinar on “Social Media Etiquette” in collaboration with Quantum Learnings - Center Of Excellence on 1st July 2021 from 7:30-8:30pm (60 minute), through online Platform. Speaker of webinar is Shivani Sharma.

Social media etiquette refers to the guidelines that companies and individuals use to preserve their reputation online.

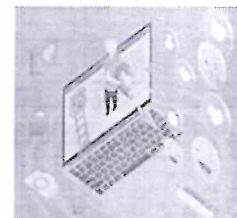

As social media channels have evolved to become one of the primary ways people communicate in the modern world on a daily basis, typical social rules are finding their way into digital environments. Just as social etiquette dictates how people behave around others in the real world, social media etiquette revolves around online guidelines to follow.

Program Objectives

What is Social Media ?

It is a form of electronic communication (such as websites for social networking and microblogging) through which users create online communities to share information, ideas, personal messages, and other content (such as videos) (Merriam Websters)
