8. Summary:

Conception: International Women's Day is celebrated the world over, every year on the eight days of March. It celebrates womanhood and pays tribute to the indomitable spirit of women across the globe. Its root lies in the early 1900s when oppression and inequality was spurring women to become more vocal and active in campaigning for change.

Objective: To create awareness of gender equality for a healthy society. Also, the milestone to be reached is the basic information for a girl child in every family education will increase awareness among the society which will further result in overall development of the nation and its community.

8th March, considered as International Women's Day. This day brings many things for women – a cause for celebration, a reason to pause and re-evaluate a remembrance, an inspiration and a time to honor, love and admire. To honor womanhood, KSSEM – Department of Management Studies has celebrated the International Women's Day on Tuesday, 8th March 2022.

During the event Chief Guest Raksha R Karpoor addressed that there should be a balance between career and family and without family support a woman can't achieve success, also addressed that girl should know their right to defend themselves and be careful against crimes against women. shared her tales of struggle and success. Further she said, gender equality is very important for a healthy society. The milestone to be reached is that the basic information for a girl child in every family education will increase awareness among the society which will further result in overall development of the nation and its community.

Chief Guest also shared insights on 3 Important Aspects which students should focus on in their life is START – CONTINUE – STOP these attributes will be upholding the values of life.

In the post lunch Student engagement program was organized as a part of women's day celebration, both faculties and staff shared their views on women's day significance. It was a fun filled day with cake cutting, sapling distribution, and a delicious lunch.
